

Orangutans of Southern Borneo

Orangutan Aid Fundraising tour

A 7 night tour to Kalimantan, Indonesian Borneo. Starting Jakarta 1st May 2016.

led by Jackie Peers professional photographer and Mara McCaffery founder of Orangutan Aid

The rainforest of the Tanjung Puting National Park is at our doorstep and we have a 'klotok' at our disposal to float along the gentle Sekonyer River.

Be prepared for adventure as we overnight on our river boat, lulled to sleep by the sounds of the forest.

The following 2 nights will be at Rimba Eco Lodge where we can hear the plaintive cry of gibbons and see the resident macaques from our rooms.

Our days will start early to make best use of the morning light, a highlight being the Proboscis monkeys.

Jackie will hold photography workshops, for those interested throughout the tour, with limitless opportunities for practice.

Mara will provide information about the problems facing wild orang-utans, and the need to conserve their habitat.

Cost per person: US$3100.00.pax twin share subject to currency fluctuation. Single supplement $315.00

Includes: All transfers and domestic flights, accomodation, meals as stated in itinerary. Photography tuition by Jackie Peers, Orangutan expertise from Mara McCaffery, a local guide, a Klotok for use into National Park. Orangutan Aid membership for 1 year, a donation to OFI's Orangutan Legacy Forest Fund and park entrance fees/ licences.

Does not include: International airfares, airport departure taxes, visa, vaccinations, travel insurance (must have) drinks, laundry, telephone calls, personal expenses and gratuities, meals other than those shown and anything not listed above.

Contact details • info@orangutanaid.com • www.orangutanaid.com •
• jackie@jackiepeers.com • www.jackiepeers.com •

